

IN BRIEF

Donations sought

THE Art for Literacy Exhibition at UWS needs artists to donate to sell at the exhibition, which raises money for the Australian Literacy and Numeracy Foundation.

All types of art are welcome - paintings, photographs, sculptures, woodwork, textiles and ceramics.

Artists will be supporting the ALNFs New Migrant Youth Project, which is a tutoring program that helps new migrants from African and Afghani backgrounds who are in years 7-11.

There will be two exhibitions. The first is on Friday, May 30, at the Ian Turbott building on the UWS Parramatta campus; the second is on June 7-9 at the Beach Art Gallery in Thirroul.

Artists need to register their contact details and type of artwork with Stephanie Borg at 15931476@uws.edu.au

Nominate and win

Organisers of the HESTA Australian Nursing Awards are calling on patients, medical professionals and readers to nominate outstanding nurses in the categories of Nurse of the Year, Innovation in Nursing and Graduate Nurse of the Year.

You could win one of five $500 Coles Group gift cards just by nominating.

NSW finals winners will proceed to the nationals at the Crown Palladium in Melbourne in May. There is $25,000 worth of prizes.

Nominations close Friday, February 29.
