HOMEMADE BUBBLES

There's no greater feeling than when you discover a childhood experience is just as much fun when you are an adult. Expect just that with the spankin' new version of a SodaStream machine. Invented in 1903, this retro device has had a makeover and the new slim-line version would be a sleek addition to any modern kitchen. And, yes, it's just as much fun to make your own soft-drink bubbles as it was back in the day. Available from Woolworths, Harvey Norman, Kmart and Big W. $69-$149.

NEW FERRERO

Ferrero Rocher has a challenger for the title of our favourite after-dinner praline. The new Ferrero Rondnoir has layers of creamy, crunchy dark chocolate around an exquisite dark chocolate pearl centre. We especially love the tiny balls of crunchy dark chocolate on the outer layer.

* Available from supermarkets and department stores. 40g box $3.25, 120g box $8.50.

MINI COCKTAIL

Every female worth her salt loves a good cocktail but after three or four, things start to get a little hazy. Enter Crown's new cocktail bar, Lumia, which has come up with the ingenious idea of a cocktail sampler with a choice of four mini cocktails from the menu for $15. Lumia is open from 5pm weekdays, 2pm on Saturdays and from noon on Sundays.

CARDS FOR A CAUSE

Choosing the right card can be tough but not with the latest range from the Australian Literacy and Numeracy Foundations, which features photographs of the Australian landscape or portraits of indigenous youth. The best part — these are cards for a cause. All proceeds aid literacy programs for indigenous children.
